

principles of Economics

Introduction – society and the economic problem – economic system – theory of value – utility – demand – the balance of consumers – demand and supply studies- costs balance of producers- theories of distribution – national income- money its role and types , banks , population , development