

Creative Thinking (HUM491):

Suggestion for the Course Descriptions:

The success of any creative work depends not only on the ability to find good ideas, but on the skills for developing, managing and presenting those ideas to others. The topics of the course include what is creativity, how to be creative, blending concepts, thinking like geniuses, creative thinking problem process, techniques for analyzing environments. Practice creative thinking techniques that will help in learning to think creatively; and apply these skills to a work environment. How to think and write clearly, argument mapping, argument analysis, scientific reasoning, understanding of the context, history, and major theories of the discipline, making rational decisions, realizing and identifying problems, techniques for generating alternatives and choosing among them. Critical thinking, how to develop critical thinking and reasoning skills to help analyze and respond appropriately to a wide variety of personal and work situations.