

Mathematics of Insurance “MTH 212”

This course consists of life insurance mathematics as well as non-life insurance mathematics. Topics include insurance and annuity reserves, characterization of discrete and continuous multiple decrement models, paid and incurred loss development, loss reporting and settlement delay.