

Accounting Theory “ACC467”

- This course covers the development of accounting thought , accounting problems that faced this development in different stages
- It also covers the scientific treatment to the problems of accounting measurement and disclosure
- The effect of environment and international variables on accounting thought and contemporary development of scientific accounting researches methodologies are also covered